

Q: What kinds of retailers use Point of Sale?

Point of Sale is ideal for many types of retailers. Here are a few examples:

Specialty hard goods retailers:

- Jewelry
- Optical
- Lumber and Building
- Floor Covering-Hardware
- Paint and Wallpaper
- Drapery and Upholstery
- Sporting Goods
- Housewares
- Computers & Electronics
- Music and Video
- Musical Instruments
- Camera

Specialty soft goods retailers:

- Clothing, Footwear, and Accessories
- Luggage and Leather
- Furniture and Home Furnishings
- Sewing and Fabric

General merchandise:

- Gift and Souvenir
- Museum
- Game and Hobby
- Nursery and Garden

Q: Are there any types of retailers that Intuit QuickBooks Point of Sale is not meant for?

A: There are a few types of retailers for whom Intuit QuickBooks Point of Sale is not optimal, including:

- Retail stores without a physical location, for example stores that only sell products on the Web
- Retailers with more than 20 locations
- Grocery or convenience stores
- Liquor stores
- Gas stations
- Full service restaurants or bars